The 2017 Dream Home

It won't be long before you can get your Dream Home fix. The countdown is underway for the 2017 Indianapolis Dream Home. And next year GuyCo® Homes and Remodeling is going to show you something you've never seen at a Dream Home show!

The 2017 Indianapolis Dream Home will feature a remodel project. That's right! Not a custom home created from the get-go to be a Dream Home, but a home with some miles on it and the baggage that goes with it.

For the 2017 show, GuyCo will take on an existing 7,000-square-foot home in an architectural style reminiscent of Frank Lloyd Wright's designs. They'll give the Carmel home, built in the 1980s, a fresh new look that will bring it into the 21st Century!

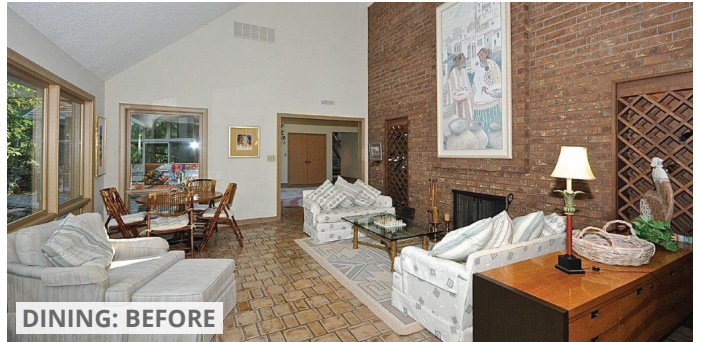

Not only that, but GuyCo will create an additional 3,500 square feet of functional living space, seamlessly blending old and new. If you're thinking about a remodel for your home, the 2017 Dream Home will showcase tons of ideas you can use. You won't want to miss it.

The official unveiling won't happen until next May, but you can watch the progress over the months ahead at: www.guycohomes.com/DreamHome.

GuyCo joins a select group of about 20 custom builders that have taken part in the Indianapolis Dream Home. It takes an experienced company to pull off a feat like this. Jon Guy, owner of GuyCo Homes and Remodeling, and his team have been transforming homes for satisfied customers for nearly three decades. They've done it all. And they've done it right.
